Verse 2:

Keep and seek your dreams,
It may seem harder than it seems,
Find someone to lend a hand,
And when you're right then take a stand.
Admit to your mistakes
You're sometimes wrong it's just the breaks
Find the place where you belong
What doesn't kill you only makes you strong.

Verse 3:

Believe in your self worth,
There's none more worthy of this Earth,
Don't let the hurdles that you face,
Throw you off or slow your pace.
Strive to keep your word,
Let slurs and insults stay unheard,
Don't hesitate to compliment,
Communicate your real intent.

Verse 4:

The truth is always best,
Even when you feel hard pressed,
Ask for help when you need it most,
No matter what you got don't boast.
Always claim your blame,
Don't unload on someone's name,
Send hatred quickly on its way,
It kills you if you let it stay.
